

AAERG Presents Black Voices Matter

Join UW-Madison Division of Extension's African American Employee Resource Group (AAERG) in celebrating Black History Month. Each Wednesday in February, we will host a lunch and learn with a guest speaker. .

Discussion Series

Each Wednesday in February at Noon

Register to join us

Be (YOU) tifully Queer : Black Experiences in the Workplace •
February 3

Shaashawn Dial

Shaashawn Dial, Director of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion, Stephens College.

Unearthing and Understanding Microaggressions for Inclusion and Improved Communication • February 10

Dr. Mark D. Tschaepe

Dr. Mark D. Tschaepe, Associate Professor, Prairie View A&M University, Texas.

Accountability: Health Disparities in the African American Community February 17

Dr. Julianne Adams Brit (MD)

Dr. Julianne Adams Brit (MD), Founder/CEO, Radiant Women's Health, Georgia.

Mass Incarceration: Banking on Bondage • February 24

Domonique Green

Domonique Green, Graduating Senior at Howard University, President and Founder of PAPERTAG, Washington, DC.

Extension

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON
AFRICAN AMERICAN EMPLOYEE
RESOURCE GROUP

Contact Danielle Hairston Green at danielle.hairstongreen@wisc.edu with questions or for special accommodations.