

Preparing YOUTH for the future...

4-H Focuses on life skills:

- Decision Making
- Problem Solving
- Relating to Others
- Planning and Organizing
- Learning to Learn
- Teaching
- Communicating with Others
- Leading Self and Others
- Relating to Change
- Applying Science and Technology
- Developing Self
- Mental and Physical Health

Many 4-H alumni report that they selected their careers because of something they learned, enjoyed, or experienced while a 4-H member.

Volunteer...

Youth participants need positive role models, individuals with project area expertise, and caring community members to support programming, judge events, share wisdom, and much more.

If you'd like to get involved, contact the Monroe County Extension Office.

4-H by YOUth for YOUth...

Clubs are led by youth, with support and mentoring from caring adult volunteers, creating opportunities to develop leadership skills, choose programming and project areas, experience cooperation, compromise, leadership, and teamwork.

What is 4-H?

4-H is a youth organization of boys and girls sharing, doing, and learning together in all kinds of projects, events, and activities. 4-H members are guided by volunteer adult leaders, parents, and UW Extension staff. Members choose projects that fit their personal interests. Both rural and urban youth enjoy the merits of the 4-H program. Families enjoy the meaningful time together through a variety of events.

Who can join 4-H?

Membership is open to all boys and girls kindergarten through one year past high school graduation. 4-H is open to all youth regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or handicap.

Younger members in grades K-2 are in the 4-H Cloverbud or Explorer project, a unique program that is designed especially for young participants.

Since 1902

How much does 4-H cost?

A small membership fee, which varies from club to club and nominal charges for project literature and special activities help pay for food, transportation, or supplies. 4-H is a non-profit organization.

The 4-Hs...

HEAD

- Thinking critically
- Solving problems

HEART

- Respecting self, others, and the environment
- Communicating

HANDS

- Preparing for a career
- Serving others

HEALTH

- Choosing healthy lifestyles
- Managing change and challenges

I pledge my HEAD to clearer thinking
My HEART to greater loyalty,
My HANDS to larger service, and
My HEALTH to better living,
for my club, my community, my country and my world.
